

(back cover)

Biography – Sports

Why did everybody love Eddie Elias?

Over 270 friends, family members and business associated were interviewed to answer that question. The result is this biography. Inside you will learn ...

... about the creation of the Professional Bowlers Association and how Eddie turned the sport into one of the longest continuous sports series on network TV

... that as an agent he represented almost two dozen golfers in addition to basketball, football, bowling and auto racing stars

... from television personalities and sports commentators who filled his list of clients

... that Eddie also worked with golf club and resort management systems, golf course design and management pros, and even golf schools

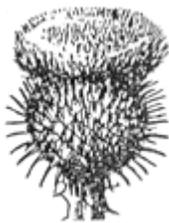

“If you are looking for a book that takes you through the life and times of Eddie Elias ... this is the book for you.”

— Johnny Campos, Bowlers Journal International

“This book has to be written. The world must learn about Eddie, if they don't already know him.”

— Evan “Big Cat” Williams, Golfer, Sports Commentator

Jane Richardson, known around the world for her well-researched books, has written for newspapers, has been a monthly feature writer for a bi-lingual magazine, is a world traveler, and has been widely interviewed on television and radio shows in the US and overseas. Her talents again shine in Eddie Elias; the author's 8th published book, her 4th biography.

Thistle Publishing
www.thistlepub.com

$14.95